

Peace By: Evelyn Peace is all they need They were assaulted, starved, scared All children matter.	Residential Schools By: Jackson Kids were stolen I think we should remember They must have justice	Stolen By: Joel The land once theirs, gone Children were stolen and robbed This was very wrong
Wrong By: Riley Punished and no rights Stolen from my family I want to go home	Hope By: Jadon We can learn from the past. We have hope for the future. We will remember.	Gone By: Nathan Unknown and hungry Lost scared taken uncomfterble Sadness and shamed.
There's still hope By: Arianna Forgive and forget. We must move on, learn and grow. There's still hope.	Hope By: Liam All children matter Remembering the lost lives And moving forward.	Look to the future By: Jesse We want peace for all We try to forget the wrong And look to the future

Happy By: Lyla It's so unfair And the kids also have rights The kids need freedom	Taken Away By: Jaison Taken to school School, far away from home Sadness to come.	Hope By: Emma Now it closes Gone from now to forever Hope is here to stay
Forgotten Ways By: Michael A mass genocide. Lost, scared, unfair, insult. Lost, future, ashamed	Orange 215 By: Zyana Orange shirts remind Me all children matter, two Hundred fifteen gone.	Repair By: Josh They were given freedom They were given back to their families Remember every child matters.

Forgotten By: Vince An unknown people Mistreated shamed children Discouraged and lost.	Wrong and cruel By: Caleb Residential schools Children were very unloved Teachers were so mean	Justice By: Katin Yu Rights restored, freedom, Returned, their story told. Peace for the future.
	Loss By: Dyllan Turner Extreme loss happened, Nothing could fix the wrong, But maybe we can hope.	All kids By: Jeriel All children matter Of all this cruelty Children should be loved

Stolen

By Julia

Stolen, Assaulted
Discriminated, punished
Now... Freedom

Taken

By: Amara

Assaulted with fear.
We want freedom and justice.
We want peace in vain.